(b) if so, whether this translates into every Indian citizen carrying a foreign debt burden of more than US$ 100.00 on his head; and

(c) whether Government feel it prudent to pay off a part of the foreign debt out of India' present bulging forex reserves?

THE MINISTER OF STATE IN THE MINISTRY OF FINANCE (SHRI ANANDRAO VITHOBA ADSUL): (a) India's external debt stood at US$ 105.0 billion at end-December, 2002.

(b) The per capita external debt of India amounted to US$ 101.2 at end-December, 2002.

(c) As a part of its prudent debt management policy, Government of India prematurely repaid high cost loans owed to the World Bank (IBRD) amounting to US$ 1687.8 million and to Asian Development Bank (ADB) amounting to US$ 1342.33 million in February, 2003. Government of India also inends to continue wth this policy of prudently managing the external liabilities and of proactively liquidating relatively higher cost component of its external debt portolio.
